Tallapoosa, GA - Veterans Memorial and Medal of Honor Park is dedicated to honor the veterans of Haralson County. A memorial to 9/11 was installed in September of 2011. There is a section of Medal of Honor recipients and a Wall of Tears to honor the women in service from Haralson County. An audio system serving 6 of the sites was donated by the Tallapoosa Lions Club in 2013. An Americana Fourth of July Celebration is held here each year to honor our veterans. Intersection of Hwy 100 N. and Robertson Ave. Tallapoosa, GA For information contact Sammy Robinson 770.574.7764.

West Georgia Museum has something for all ages. A look back at the late 1800 early 1900 era, including replicas of old stores, a barber shop and bank, will take you back to an earlier time. For the youngsters, a whole assemblage of dinosaurs greets visitors as they enter the museum. With a 30 ft. Tyrannosaurus Rex towering over several other smaller dinosaurs, it is indeed an awesome site that will inspire the young, inquisitive minds. A horse drawn buggy and a restored 1923 Ford Peddlers wagon will bring out the realism of that long ago period. 185 Mann St, Tallapoosa For tours and information call 770.574.3125. westgeorgiamuseum.com

Buchanan, GA - Historic Haralson County Courthouse A picturesque agglomeration of towers, turrets, arches, differing wall surfaces, windows in a variety of sizes and shapes, and exuberant ornament, the old Haralson County courthouse, which has stood proudly in the center of the square in little Buchanan since 1892, epitomizes the Victorian period. The building is Queen Anne in style. It was designed by Bruce and Morgan, whose partnership produced at least eight Georgia courthouses including several along U.S. 27. The building now houses the local historical society and library.
